Agility Mail for Teams - Cloud Hosted E-Mail

Robust, Flexible E-Mail for Small Teams

Agility Mail for teams is the perfect solution for small businesses that want to have a small group share a single e-mal address.

Who would use Agility Mail for Teams?

Agility Mail for teams is an ideal solution if you want all of your staff to use a single e-mail address to communicate with customers and suppliers, but want them all to have the same view of e-mail at all times, including any Folders and Sent Items. It's perfect for small teams that work in shifts, have part time staff and when you want to avoid messages being sent to someone who isn't "on shift".

Features of Agility Mail for Teams

- One e-mail address, and up to 5 different people can share a mailbox with the standard subscription

- A massive amount of storage - up to 25GB for the teams e-mail, sent items, calendars and contacts

- No backups to worry about, as the e-mail is all backed up by us as part of your subscription

- Easy to use – Agility Mail for Teams uses Microsoft Outlook so it's familiar to your team

- Everything, from new messages to Sent Items is stored in one place, and everyone sees the same information

- Have a new address or bring an existing "legacy" e-mail address to the service to use with Agility Mail for Teams

- Available standalone or as an additional mailbox

What do customers say?

"I have a PC, a laptop and two email accounts. Agility Mail was recommended as this would enable me to have both accounts on each computer, updated in real time. Plus, I've the facility to log on to both accounts via Agility webmail, home or abroad.

The set-up works extremely well - I've had good support from the team if there's been a problem, and as I'm not particularly computer literate, they have treated my questions with patience, politeness and efficiency. It's been good value for money –if you have a set-up anything like mine I would recommend Agility Mail
